

NOTIFICATION

This is to notify all concerned that the University has taken the following decisions:

- i) MS/Mphil and PhD candidates of Faculties of Science and Pharmacy who have not qualified GAT test held on 18th March 2017, are given one more chance to appear. The test will be held on April 22nd, 2017 at 10:00 am, with a changed format as given below;

(For MS/Mphil)

SUBJECT	NO.OF MQCs	MARKS
English	25	25
Basic Mathematics	25	25
General Knowledge	10	10
Subject	40	40
Total	100	100

1. Passing percentage is 50% cumulative.
2. All are multiple choice questions. (MCQs)
3. Time duration will be 90 mins (1 hr 30 mins).

(For PhD)

Component	NO.OF MQCs	MARKS
English	20	20
Subject	80	80
Total	100	100

1. Passing percentage is 70% cumulative.
 2. All are multiple choice questions. (MCQs)
 3. Time duration will be 90 mins (1 hr 30 mins).
- ii) This will be last chance for the candidates who failed their second GAT test held (held on 18th March 2017); the list of such candidates, is attached herewith.
 - iii) Candidates can qualify NTS-GAT General conducted by National Testing Service in July or December, 2017.
 - iv) MS/Mphil and PhD candidates of Faculties of Science and Pharmacy for the year of 2012,2013,2014,2015 who have not cleared NTS-GAT General or subject (for PhD) or University's GAT test, can fulfill the requirement before submission of thesis.
 - v) Registration for the test will remain open till April 20, 2017. The fee for the test is Rs.1000/= Contact Admission section as soon as possible.

Director ORIC

Date: 06-04-2017